Over thirty years in business . . .

Over 100 Million square feet of waterproof outdoor flooring installed and hundreds of thousands of satisfied customers.

Duradek . . .

Daring to do business differently!

With over thirty years behind them and well over one hundred million square feet of Duradek installed, John and Bob Ogilvie see that their determination to do business differently is succeeding.

Doing business differently means:

- Duradek only sells its products through professional contractors they know and trust to do the job properly.
- There is a rigorous training course required and everyone that does business with Duradek must pass through this program.
- Ongoing testing and research enables Duradek to develop new and successful products for the marketplace.

The result is a 'welding' of the entire network into 'one family of companies' that is dedicated to satisfying customers. Duradek always creates long term relationships with its dealers so that customer satisfaction is in the hands of responsible people with a history of strong customer service.

Duradek . . .

Daring to do business differently!

"Our reputation as the industry's leader in waterproof decking was not earned by selling our product at the lowest price. It was earned by taking care of our customers' needs and that means doing the job right the first time.

- Robert Ogilvie

Vice-President and General Manager

"Successful waterproofing is all about the details. That's why Duradek puts so much emphasis on training and support."

- John Ogilvie, President
